The Trail of Sports in BOXER WRITES College Athletic World A TRIBUTE TO

Syracuse Makes Profit on Long Trip of the Football Eleven to the Coast. Syracuse University Athletic Coast. Coast

Association made a profit of $500 on the transcontinental football trip after All preparations are complete for the

All preparations are complete for the great Pacific Coast trip of the Brown University football team, the squad being scheduled to leave Providence on Wednesday. If all goes as planned the learning and the learning scheduled to leave Providence on Wednesday. If all goes as planned the learning will be one continuous triumphal march across the contained. When the squad of players reaches the twenty-four members of the party $2,500; rental of the private car at the rate of $45 a day, $900; meals and hotel accommodations at San Frencisco and Los Angeles, $1,000.

The "Daily Princetonian" has published a composite All-Star football eleven from the following selections:
Charles E. Parker, in "The Rosaton Charles E. Parker, in "The New York Evening Post"; Parke H. Davia, Donald G. Herring, in "The Philadelphia Public Ledger"; Dr. Albert Sharpe, the Cornell coach; "The Philadelphia Public Ledger"; Dr. Albert Sharpe, the Cornell coach; "The Philadelphia Builetin," Lieutenant Ingram, of Annancolis, and several others.

It's a mighty strong one, too, and it is made up as follows:

It's might person the party sharped the providence of the party sharped the players will be one continuous triumphal march across the contained. When the squad of players reacase the full between the train with automobiles, the sharp the taken to the Chicago University float in the contained. When the team reaches Pasadena, on New Year's Day, for the game will be taken to the Chicago University float in the stands, Brown, because in love of the bild the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at the players will be guests at a dinner at

It's a mighty strong one, too, and it is made up as follows:

Left end, Shelton, Cornell; left tackle, Gilman, Harvard; left guard, Spears, Dartmouth; centre, Peck, Pitte, Spears, Dartmouth; centre, Spears, Dartmouth; centre, Spears, Dartmouth; c

ST. PAUL TO MEET

TIGERS AT HOCKEY

Many Veterans on Teams That Clash Wednesday Night.

y, the fontball couch at non. The Figures have had considerable as started to whim the ham practice on the ice at the local rink

Freddie Welsh and Head of Roycrofters Were Close Friends.

FRA ELBERTUS

Clash Wednesday Night.

St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., will play its annual holiday season bockey game in New York on Wednesday night. The schoolboys will line up against Princeton in the St. Nicholas Rink in the first game of the senson year under a contidered responsible for the come of the team.

Alfred Cluckson, University of Buffalo, and thin week's all the line week's the rule. Princeton has seven of last time to me you should be represented by a playing the sensor than the ties. The schoolboys will line up against Princeton in the St. Nicholas Rink in the first game of the sensor to the youngsters, and the collegians as well.

Contests in the past between Yale and St. Paul's and Princeton and St. Paul's and Princeton and St. Paul's have always resulted in good the past between Yale and St. Paul's and Princeton and St. Paul's have always resulted in good the past between Yale and St. Paul's and Princeton and St. Paul's have always resulted in good the part of the team.

Alfred Cluckson, University of Buffalo, milton was played to a score. The rule. Princeton has seven of last the seems to me you should be represented to the past between the last few weeks.

Men Who Will Clash for Heavyweight Crown

SPECIALS HIGH IN QUAKER DOG SHOW

Amount Is $500, with No Strings to Any Prize.

All the preliminary arrangements have been made for the open specialty dog show of the Uhiladelphia Boston Terrier Club, which is to be held at the New Bingham Hotel, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, January 13. The list of money specials aggregates $500, and in addition there will be prizes of $5, $3 and $2 offered in each class.

James E. Carroll, of Buffalo, N. Y. has been selected to judge all the classes. His drawing abilities are evidenced by the fact that on the last oversion he officiated at a show the entry denced by the fact that on the last oreasion he officiated at a show the entry list numbered more than 100 dors.

The members of the Philadelphia club have decided to cater to out-off-town funciers, as well as Philadelphia chancers, as well as Philadelphia of fered have any "stringe" attached to them. George F. Folicy, of Lansdowne, Penn., will be superintendent of the show, and will act as chairman of the bench committee, which has been greatly increased to obtain stronger working power. The coming exhibition, unlike those of past years, will be for one day only. Entries will close with Mr. Foley on December 30.

ONE CLUB ROLLING
FOR FIFTY YEA

Algonquin Club Holds Five.

Cno Game Record with a Weoden Bail.

With bowling megula accuring the bring for ideas with which to still interest in tea pins, naviged.

O'Leary Wins Bout

Coming Dog Shows and Field Trials

Personal Touches Here and There in Boxing

POST-SEASON SERIES URGED

FOR FIFTY YEARS

Algosquin Club Holds Five-Ma One Game Record with a

in Twelfth Round and tournaments, it is strange the wery popular there, and when he headed for the raft across that stretch of ice the reception he got was so warm that the ice began to melt. I didn't pay much attention to it, but I soon discovered the raft was moving.

"The more Dundee's friends warmed up to him the more the ice melted. The first thing we knew the raft on which the ring was pitched began to FLOAT. Yes, FLOAT. Every time I stepped off of it at the end of the resting spells I went up to my eyebrows in mountain deg.

"M FROZEN IN THE TRANSITION OF THE PROZEN IN THE PROZENT IN

The control of the co